

The CTV Mission

The CTV mission is to create programming that best reflects and promotes student life at Cooper City High School. While CTV News and its other productions intends to entertain and educate, its main focus is to keep the student body and faculty informed of all the great activities and achievements CCHS students participate in each day.

The CTV Code of Ethics

It is CTV's responsibility to document the culture and lifestyles of the current times, and do it in a tasteful and sensitive manner so as not to isolate or offend any specific group.

Responsible Journalism is a requirement and should CTV's primary guideline when producing "creative" segments. Discretion will be used by ALL STAFF MEMBERS when producing Political commentary & satire as well as "sketch" type comedy segments. INNAPROPRIATE SEGMENTS WILL NOT AIR if the producers feel it seeks to degrade, defame, or demoralize a student or group of students. All student codebook rules apply, naturally...
